

ELIZABETH ANN L'HEUREUX, DNP, APRN, FNP-BC, FNP-C
Piedmont, MO • 573-429-0089 • bethlheureux@hotmail.com

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Doctor of Nursing Practice prepared, dual-certified Family Nurse Practitioner, and clinical nursing faculty member with 15+ years of experience across higher education, clinical practice, quality improvement, and rural health leadership. Demonstrates a strong commitment to the mission of collective change, inclusive thinking, and patient-centered learning.

ACADEMIC APPOINTMENT

Graduate Faculty Program - Assistant Professor of Nursing

Arkansas State University, 8/2026 - Present

Graduate Faculty Program – Adjunct Faculty FNP Program

Arkansas State University, 8/2025–8/2026

CLINICAL EXPERIENCE

Family Nurse Practitioner – Missouri Highlands Healthcare, 02/02/26 - Current

Family Nurse Practitioner – St. Francis Medical Center, 09/16/19– 03/31/26

Family Nurse Practitioner – Pain Management Clinic, Advanced Pain Center, 2018–2019

Registered Nurse – Rural Health Administration - Quality & Compliance, Poplar Bluff

Regional Medical Center, 2010–2018

EDUCATION

Doctor of Nursing Practice – Education, Arkansas State University, 2024–2025

Master of Science in Nursing – Family Nurse Practitioner, Maryville University, 2016–2018

Bachelor of Science in Nursing, Central Methodist University, 2014–2015

Associate of Science in Nursing, Three Rivers College, 2011–2013

Associate of Arts in Sociology, Three Rivers College, 2003–2005

CERTIFICATIONS

Board Certified Family Nurse Practitioner – American Nurses Credentialing- 2018- current

Board Certified Family Nurse Practitioner – The American Academy of Nurse Practitioners
Certification Board – 2018 - current

CPR certification – American Heart Association – current